
Ceara

Ceara is located in Brazil's North East and is the Brazilian state which is nearest to Europe and the USA, thus Ceara being a very strategic location with regards to boosting foreign tourism and investment into North East Brazil. This is further demonstrated with world class property developments like Cumbuco Beach Resort near Fortaleza which is currently being built. Ceara's capital is Fortaleza which has more than 3 million inhabitants, Fortaleza is the fifth largest metropolitan area in the whole of Brazil and has been for decades one of the most popular destinations of Brazilian tourists. In recent years, the fame of Fortaleza has been gaining the world, and the number of Europeans, North and South Americans travellers coming to Ceará has grown at a very fast pace. Ceara despite being one of smallest states in Brazil, has one of the longest coastlines in the country. Ceara has well preserved and nearly wild, unexplored beaches, in Ceara besides enjoying the beaches, visitors can enjoy the nightlife, take city tours, go shopping, take short trips to neighbouring beaches, and much, much more.
