Fortaleza

In Brazil there is in every corner a secret to be found and in Fortaleza, Brazil property investment is one of those secrets. Fortaleza the capital city of the state of Ceara , with over 2 million inhabitants is only 25 minutes away from Cumbuco Beach Resort. Fortaleza has all the facilities you would expect from a capital city in Brazil with many people choosing this area for property investment for these very reasons. Easily accessible through Fortaleza's international airport Pinto Martin's, Fortaleza has many large modern shopping centres full of international brands and an extensive cultural and gastronomic scene which makes the city awash with colours, smells and the atmosphere of Brazil. This is one of the many reasons why there is such huge potential for growth in the Fortaleza, Brazil property investment market. The state of Ceara is a favourite destination for international tourism and has intense tourist activity which has made it one of the states with the highest property demands in the whole of Brazil. The value per square metre in Ceara and Fortaleza in particular is just as much as any of the most emblematic regions in the country.
