Alagoas

Alagoas is Brazil's second smallest state, it is bordered by Pernambuco to the north, Bahia to the southwest and Sergipe to the south. The state of Alagoas and its famous capital Maceio lies on the North East coast of Brazil. Maceio is where you will find beautiful developments like Paradise Beach Residential and other coastal developments now starting to be built for the international investor market. With beautiful long coconut lined beaches some 270km long, offering you a feeling of space and freedom like no other and one can normally only dream of in most parts of the world. Alagoas is blessed with such a magnificent abundance of natural beauty that it's become one of the most popular area's of Brazil. Alagoas has plenty of accomodation, modern hotels and rental property is readily available to cater for the large numbers of tourist that visit Alagoas each year and enjoy this little know state outside of Brazil.

The beaches are not the sole attraction in Alagoas, the natural lakes and the tide pools are dotted arounds the region extensively and are a great pleasure to explore. Getting to Algoas is not a problem as the area is well serviced and the international airport near Maceio, Zumbi dos Palmares International flies to many major Brazilain cities and some parts of Europe and South America.
